How can we help?

The Economic Development Division of the Area Development Partnership (ADP) offers a comprehensive project management service for retail development, catering to businesses ranging from small boutiques to large multinational corporations. This service covers all phases of development, including market analysis, marketing trends, comparative studies, real estate selection, construction service recommendations, and assistance with permitting needs. The team collaborates closely with commercial realtor's to identify suitable commercial buildings and greenfield sites. The division is particularly focused on promoting retail growth in Greater Hattiesburg, providing analysis of different areas, finding appropriate locations, and facilitating the start-up process to help businesses establish themselves in the marketplace efficiently and effectively.

OVERVIEW

Greater Hattiesburg boasts a dynamic demographic profile and a thriving retail market, making it an ideal location for business investment. This hub of South Mississippi covers Forrest, Lamar, Perry, and Covington Counties within the Hattiesburg Metropolitan Statistical Area, serving a diverse population of over 700,000 residents within 60-miles. Known as the “Hub City,” Hattiesburg’s strategic position at the crossroads of Jackson, MS, Gulfport/Biloxi, MS, New Orleans, LA, and Mobile, AL, combines the accessibility of major metropolitan areas with the allure of small-town hospitality. This unique blend not only enhances the quality of life but also presents lucrative opportunities for retail businesses looking to capitalize on a robust and accessible market.

WEST HATTIESBURG

West Hattiesburg, often referred to as the Highway 98 Retail Corridor, is a vibrant retail hub in South Mississippi. This area is home to the Turtle Creek Mall and major retailers like Old Navy, Target, and Kohl’s, providing a blend of national chains and local favorites. The local dining scene is enhanced by establishments such as Keg and Barrel West, Bird House Cafe, and Half Shell Oyster House, adding a unique local flavor to the shopping experience. West Hattiesburg’s strategic location along key transportation routes, combined with its diverse retail and dining options, makes it an attractive destination for both shoppers and businesses seeking growth and visibility in a bustling commercial setting.

MIDTOWN HATTIESBURG

Midtown Hattiesburg is a bustling hub of culinary and commercial activity, boasting attractions such as The District at Midtown. This area is home to popular dining spots including Pyro’s Pizza, Fuzzy’s Taco, and Chicken Salad Chick, making it a magnet for food enthusiasts. The area is also notable for hosting the state’s only Hotel Indigo, where visitors can relax at the Brass Hat bar. Adding to its culinary fame, Midtown features eight of celebrity chef Robert St. John’s restaurants, such as the Italian-inspired Tabella, the Cajun-flavored Crescent City Grill, and the Mahogany Bar, well known for great beer, great whiskey and great eats. Midtown Hattiesburg serves as a prime location for both developers and retailers looking for a lively, growing area setting in the heart of the city.

DOWNTOWN HATTIESBURG

Downtown Hattiesburg stands out as a vibrant hub of history, culture, and commerce, offering a unique blend of creative energy and architectural beauty. This district is renowned for its authentic vibe, where history is woven seamlessly with modernity. Visitors and locals alike can enjoy live music, pop-up art exhibits, and a variety of eateries that capture the essence of the area's rich culinary traditions. The streets of Downtown Hattiesburg are alive with activity, where historic buildings house a mix of old and new businesses, creating a dynamic environment for shopping and entertainment. This area thrives on its artistic offerings and the community that supports it, making Downtown Hattiesburg a truly distinctive place to visit and invest in.

CITY OF PETAL / EVELYN GANDY

Petal, Mississippi, affectionately known as “The Friendly City,” offers a charming blend of small-town warmth and suburban convenience. Situated just across the Leaf River from Hattiesburg, Petal is known for its high-quality schools, family-friendly atmosphere, and a thriving local economy. The city's main thoroughfares are lined with a mix of local shops, restaurants, and service-based businesses that cater to the needs of its residents and visitors. Petal's community-oriented approach is evident in its regular town events, recreational facilities, and well-maintained parks, making it an ideal location for families and businesses looking for a supportive and active environment.

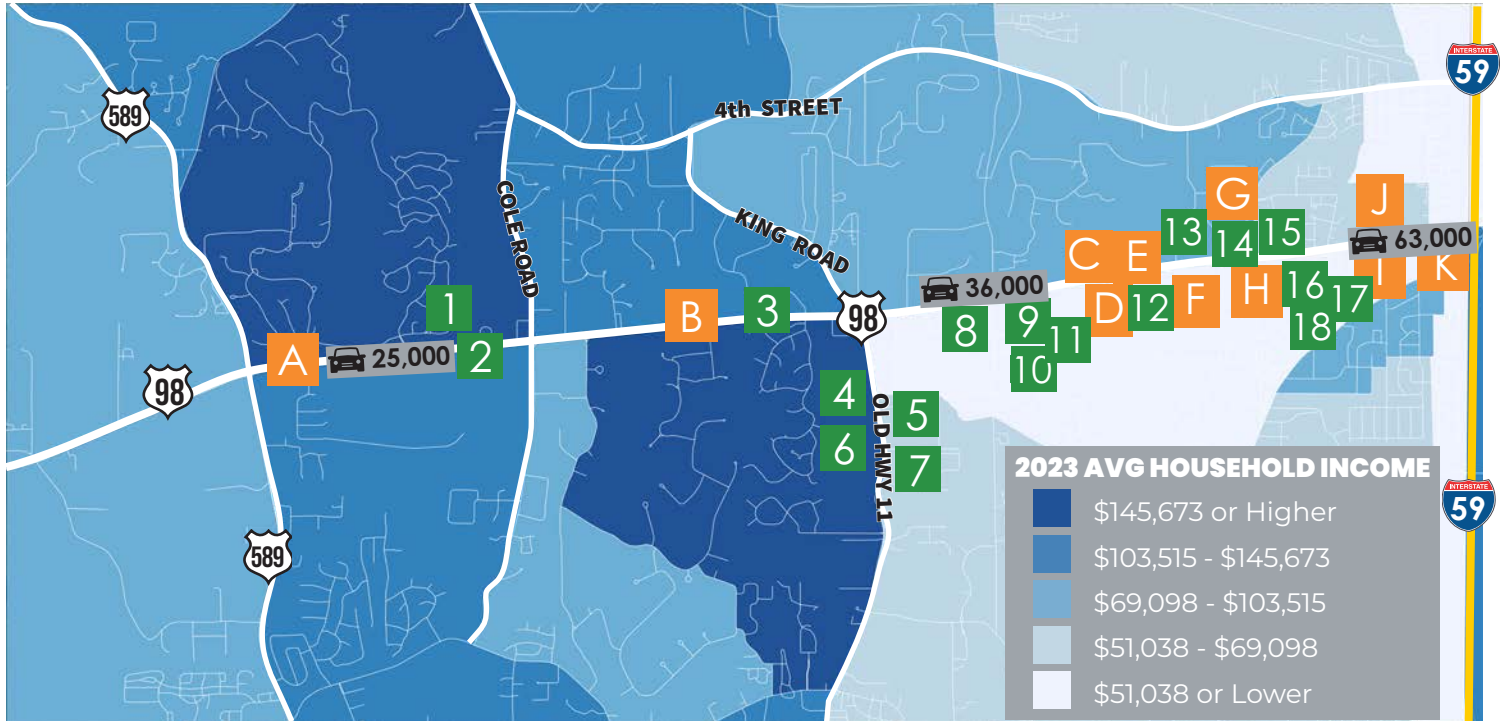

VETERAN'S MEMORIAL DRIVE

Veteran's Memorial Drive in Hattiesburg is a key locale, notable for its robust healthcare sector with top medical facilities that attract a steady flow of professionals and patients alike. For retailers, the area offers substantial traffic and consumer engagement opportunities, particularly due to nearby amenities like the Tatum Sports Complex and the YMCA, which host frequent regional soccer tournaments and community health programs. Additionally, Timberlon Golf Course enhances the area's appeal by drawing golf enthusiasts for regular tournaments. This blend of healthcare, sports, and recreation creates a vibrant environment ripe for retail opportunities, making Veteran's Memorial Drive an ideal spot for businesses looking to capitalize on a diverse and active market.
